

Sun City Ukulele Club Mini-Uke Festival

Wednesday February 8, 2017

Featuring Sara Maisel, Craig Chee and Danielle Anderson

Workshop #1A 1:00 PM – 2 PM

Craig Chee

Ukulele Boot Camp 101 (All Levels)

High G tuning recommended, but not mandatory

Craig's most popular workshop! Craig's ever adapting Boot Camp will dive into a ton of exercises that will help strengthen and quicken your fingers as well as focus on your tone. He will then show how these exercises are applied to intermediate and even advanced techniques to take you to the next level! 'Ukulele beginners to intermediates will have lots to chew on as there are many variations for all levels.

NOTE: There will be a follow up video that will be created to go over the important elements as well as expand on some of the ideas brought up during the workshop.

Workshop #1B 1:00 PM – 2 PM

Danielle Anderson aka Danielle Ate the Sandwich

Performance Skills and Playing with Confidence (All Levels)

Learn techniques to help improve your performance, whether practicing at home, in front of your ukulele group or at a sold out show in Madison Square Garden! Learn ways to perform thoughtfully, develop a stage persona and even get the chance to play in front of the class during the classmini open mic! This is a great chance for shy players to gain some experience in a fun and friendly environment.

Workshop #2 2:30 PM – 3:30 PM

Sarah Maisel

Life after the Third Fret (Beginner to Intermediate)

We all play in ukulele groups, and we all learn to play and strum the same thing. In this class, we will focus on different ways to change chords, so you can enhance the sound of the group. This is a great class for all skill levels. Let's work together using substitution chords and possibly even chords up the neck to make your group sound even better!
