

TODAY in C - John Denver

REFRAIN:

C                    Am                    F                    G7
Today while the blossoms still cling to the vine,

C                    Am                    F                    G7
I'll taste your strawberries, I'll drink your sweet wine;

C            C7                    F            Dm
A million tomorrows shall all pass away

C            Am                    F                    G7    C
Ere I forget all the joy that is mine today.

VERSE 1

C            Am            F            G7
I'll be a dandy and I'll be a rover,

C            Am            F            G7
You'll know who I am by the song that I sing.

C            Am            F            G7
I'll feast at your table, I'll sleep in your clover,

F            G7            C            G7
Who cares what tomorrow may bring.

VERSE 2

C            Am            F            G7
I can't be contented with yesterday's glories,

C            Am            F            G7
I can't live on promises winter to spring.

C            Am            F            G7
Today is my moment and now is my story --

F            G7            C            G7
I'll laugh and I'll cry and I'll sing.
