This world just gets grimmer and grimmer
 We seem to be deep in a dive
 And chances are slimmer and slimmer
 That our kind of song will survive
 But I have an answer to this
 So follow my highway to bliss!

Have a Martini!
 Put two olives in!

Don't be a meany, Fill it up to the brim!

Whether it's vodka ... or whether it's gin

Have a Martini ... and let life begin!
