

ANNIE'S LOVER

I A	V7 E7	C(I)	G7 (V7)	Annie's lover was a big ol' man, he was a farmin' man
Bb	F7		C(I)	Never spent much time worry 'bout the peoples in the big, big city
B	F#7		G7 (V7)	'cause... all he did know about was the cows and the chickens,
C	G7		C(I)	the pigs and the horses, and the sheeps and the goats and the ducks they fly
C#	A#7	C(I)	G7 (V7)	sat on a hillside, playin' his guitar, watchin' the whole thing come down in harmony
D	A7		C(I)	Well, Annie's lover was a big ol' man, he was a African man
Eb	Bb7		G7 (V7)	He walked around and looked and saw and saw everything ... that his eyes could see
E	B7		C(I)	'cause all he did know about was the cows and the chickens,
F	C7		G7 (V7)	the pigs and the horses, and the sheeps and the goats
F#	C#7		C(I)	and the trees and the water, and the fields and the mountains
G	D7		G7 (V7)	and the blue skies and the big clouds, and the ducks they fly
A	E7		C(I)	he sat on a hillside, playin' his guitar .. watchin' the whole thing come down in harmony
A#	E#7

• Go ahead - try a scat verse here!

F	C7	C(I)	G7 (V7)	Oh, Annie's lover was a big ol' man, he was a farmin' man
F#	C#7		C(I)	Never spent much time... worry 'bout the peoples in the big, big, big city
G	D7		G7 (V7)	'Cause all he did know about was the cows and the chickens,
A	E7		C(I)	The pigs and the horses and the sheeps and the goats
A#	E#7		G7 (V7)	And the big, big mountains and the blue skies and the water
B	F7		C(I)	And the big trees and the grass and the ducks they fly
Bb	Fb7		C(I)	He sat on a hillside, playin' his guitar watchin' the whole thing come down in harmony