

CHORUS:

C Am
 I don't need no diamond ring
 C Am
 I don't need no Cadillac car
 C Am
 Just want to drink my Ripple wine
 G C
 Down in the Lightnin' Bar
 G C
 Down in the Lightnin' Bar

Lightning Bar Blues

by Hoyt Axton

Hoyt Axton (Mar. 1938 – Oct. 1999) was an American country music singer-songwriter, and a film and TV actor. He wrote some great songs that became popular hits, including "Joy to the World," "Greenback Dollar," and "Sweet Misery."

C Am
 Some people value fortune and fame
 C Am
 I don't care about 'em none
 C Am
 Just want to drink my Ripple wine
 G C
 I want to have my good time fun
 G C
 Have my good time fun

CHORUS

C Am
 When I die don't cry for me
 C Am
 Don't bury me at all
 C Am
 Place my livin', laughin', lovin' bones
 G C
 In a jar of alcohol
 G C
 Hundred-proof alcohol
