F	Bye, Bye Blackbird
Am7	by composer Ray Henderson and lyricist Mort Dixon  This was the #16 song of 1926 In 1982, the Recording Industry Association of America posthumously awarded John Coltrane a Grammy for  By composer Ray Henderson and lyricist Mort Dixon  "Bye, Bye, Blackbird" has been recorded by many artists, including— Gene Austin who was first in 1926  Josephine Baker
C7 Fdim	album, Bye Bye Blackbird.  F  GM7  F  Bing Crosby  Miles Davis  Etta James  Rickie Lee Jones  Diana Krall,  Peggy Lee
Gm	Am7 C7 F  Here I go, singin' low  F (FDIM) Gm7 C7  Ben Webster Oscar Peterson Julie London Dean Martin Johnny Marthis Paul McCartney Nina Simonte
Am F7	Bye bye black - bird  Gm Am Gm Sarah Vaughan  Where somebody waits for me,
Cm7	C7 Am7 Gm C7 Sugar's sweet, and so is she Gm C7 F
Blm6	Bye bye blackbird  F7  Cm7  D7  No one here can love or understand me;
Cm6	Gm Bbm6 C7 Oh what hard luck stories they all hand me F Gm7 F
Dm	Make my bed and light the light, C7 Cm6 D7
Dm F6	I'll arrive late tonight  Gm C7 F NICE ENDINGOR- Bb Bbm6 F6
or or or or a really veet ending chord try	Blackbird, bye bye NCE TURNAROUND - Dn Gm7 C7  There are so many wonderful, and different, arrangements of this great American Songbook standard from 1926 try this one - try lots of others and then maybe even create your own!

OPUKAPlay-a-long 2012