

Five Pounds Of Possum

Well... [G] My children all are hungry, and [C] my dog needs a [G] bone.

[G] I just got laid off, so I [A7] must be trav'lin' [D7] home.

[G] It's an hour after [G7] sunset and, [C] much to my [G] delight

[G] There's five pounds of possum in my [D] headlights [G] tonight.

[G] [Turnaround] [G]

CHORUS:

=====
[G] There's five pounds of possum in my [C] headlights [G] tonight.
[G] If I could run him over every [A7] thing would be [D7] alright.
[G] We'll have some possum [G7] gravy. Oh, [C] what a beautiful [G] sight!

[G] There's five pound of possum in my [D] headlights [G] tonight.

[G] [Finger Doodle] [G]

=====
[G] Won't have to kill no chicken, [C] won't have to open no [G] cans.

[G] Just a little bit closer and I'll [A7] have him in my [D7] hands.

[G] I think time has [G7] come to [C] change from dim to [G] bright.

[G] There's five pounds of possum in my [D] headlights [G] tonight.

CHORUS

[G] And we'll "burrow" some sweet potatoes from the [C] farmer's [G] garden plot.

[G] A couple of tomatoes and some [A7] peppers if they're [D7] hot.

[G] Then we'll add some [G7] wild onion to [C] give a little [G] bite

[G] To that five pounds of possum in my [D] headlights [G] tonight.

END TAG: [G] To that five pounds of possum on my [D] table [G] tonight!

[G] [Turnaround] [G]
