

introduce Helen and Kathy. SN low B

'Ulupalakua

'Ulupalakua (Ranch)

vamp. A7// D7// G//// A7// D7// G// D7//

^G
1. Kaulana mai nei ^{G7}

Celebrated indeed

^C
A'o 'Ulupalakua ^G

Is 'Ulupalakua

^{E7}
He 'inikiniki ahiahi ^{A7}

Where the evening breeze tickles the skin

^{D7}
Ka home a'o paniolo ^G

It is the cowboy's home

^G
2. He wehi e ku'u lei ^{G7}

You are a treasure, my dear

^C
A'o 'Ulupalakua ^G

'Ulupalakua

^{E7}
Onaona me ka 'awapuhi ^{A7}

Where ginger is abundant

^{D7}
He beauty maoli nō ^G

Truly, a thing of beauty

^G
3. Ha'ina mai ka puana ^{G7}

Let the story be told

^C
A'o 'Ulupalakua ^G

Of 'Ulupalakua

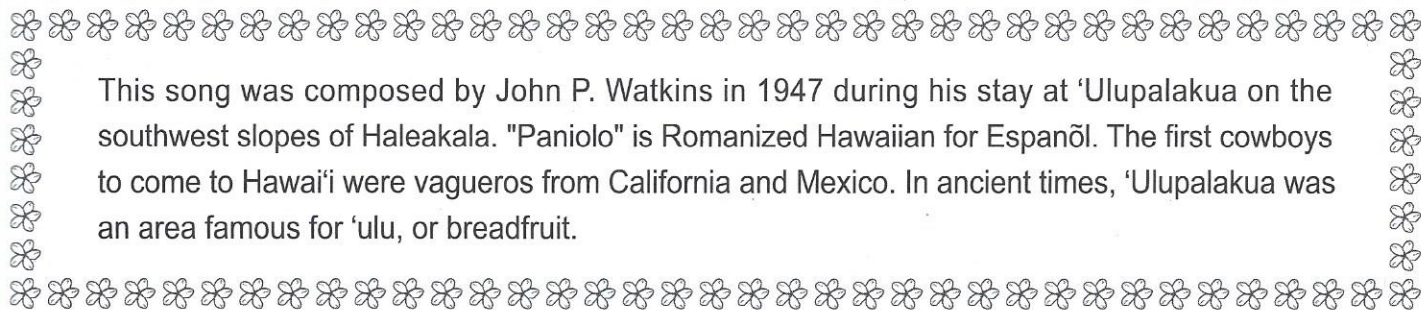

^{E7}
He 'inikiniki ahiahi ^{A7}

Where the evening breeze tickles the skin

^{D7}
Ka home a'o paniolo ^G

It is the cowboy's home

tag 2X, then A7// D7// G/ Gb/ G/

 This song was composed by John P. Watkins in 1947 during his stay at 'Ulupalakua on the southwest slopes of Haleakala. "Paniolo" is Romanized Hawaiian for Espanōl. The first cowboys to come to Hawai'i were vagueros from California and Mexico. In ancient times, 'Ulupalakua was an area famous for 'ulu, or breadfruit.