

C F C
I've been walkin', in my sleep,
Am F
Countin' troubles, 'stead of countin' sheep,
C Am
Where the years went, I can't say,
F G C
I just turned around, and they've gone away.

C F C
I've been siftin', through the layers,
Am F
Of dusty books, and faded papers,
C Am
They tell a story, I used to know,
F G C
It was one that happened, so long ago.

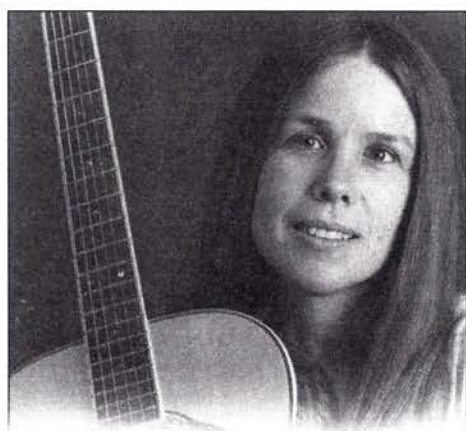

Across the Great Divide

by Kate Wolf

C F C Am F
It's gone away, in yesterday, Now I find myself on the mountainside,

C G Am F G C
Where the rivers change direction, Across the Great Divide.

Born in 1942 in San Francisco as Kathryn Louise Allen, Kate Wolf was an American folk singer and songwriter who died in 1986 after a long battle with leukemia. Kate played with the band Wildwood Flower before recording ten records as a solo artist. Her music is celebrated each year in June at the Kate Wolf Memorial Music Festival in Laytonville, California.

C F C
Now I hear, the owl a-callin',
Am F
Softly as, the night was fallin',
C Am
With a question, and I replied,
F G C
But he's gone, across the borderline. CHORUS

C F C
The finest hour, that I have seen,
Am F
Is the one, that comes between,
C Am
The edge of night, and the break of day,
F G C
It's when the darkness, rolls away. CHORUS x2
