

Lorant's Song

Words by Lorant Nagyszalanczy
Music by his son, Sandor

In loving memory of Lorant Nagyszalanczy (1920-2017) who sang this song at the Uke Club open mic in 2011. The song is dedicated to all of the club's "Bea-utiful Ladies"

C A+ A
Come to me, you Ukulele La - dy,
Dm G7 Am7
Play to me, but don't play blue.

A7 Dm
Let the blues play out in blue Hawai - i
D7 G7
Though they play those happy tunes too.

C7 F
Every uke case has a silver li - ning,
A7 D7 G7
One that lets the sun come shining thro - ugh,

F Cdim
Play it happy but not blue,

C B A7
And you'll be happy too,

Dm F G7 C G7 Repeat Song
And I will learn to play the uke with you!

2nd Time: Dm F G7 C Am7
And I will learn to play the uke with you!
