

Rollin' in My Sweet Baby's Arms

CHORUS:

G
Rollin' in my sweet baby's arms,
D7
Rollin' in my sweet baby's arms,
G G7
I'm gonna lay around the shack,
C
'Til the mail train comes back,
D7 G
Rollin' in my sweet baby's arms.

G
I ain't gonna work on the railroad,
D7
I ain't gonna work down on the farm,
G G7 C
I'll lay around the shack 'til the mail train comes back,
D7 G
And roll in my sweet baby's arms. CHORUS

G
Mama was a beauty operator,
D7
Sister could weave and spin,
G G7 C
Daddy owned an interest in that new cotton gin,
D7 G
Just watchin' all that money rollin' in. CHORUS

G
Now where was you last Friday night,
D7
While I was layin' here in jail?
G G7 C
You were walkin' the streets with another man,
D7 G
You wouldn't even try to go my bail. CHORUS 2X

This traditional American song seems to come from the lyrics of the cowboy song "My Lula Gal", which came from bawdy British and Appalachian songs generally known as "Bang Bang Rosie" or "Bang Away Lulu."
