C F C C F C
 If you don't believe I love you, look what a fool I've been,
C F C C F C
 If you don't believe I'm sinking, look what a hole I'm in,
C C7 F F7
 Stealin', stealin' pretty mama don't you tell on me,
C G7 C C
 I'm stealin' back to my same old used-to-be.

C C7
 Well, the woman I love, she's just my height and size,
F F7
 She's a married woman, comes to see me sometimes. CHORUS

C C7
 Well I'm goin' up north, gonna see my girl,
F F7
 Sweetest thing in the whole wide world. CHORUS

KAZOO SOLO OVER VERSE & CHORUS CHORDS

C C7
 Drink good whiskey you'll be drunk all the time,
F F7
 Stay drunk baby, it'll ease your mind.

CHORUS, then END:

C G7 C F7 C - G7 - C
 'Cause I'm stealin' back to my same old used-to-be.

Stealin' (also called Stealin', Stealin') is an American folk song from the 1920s. The song is particularly identified with the jug band tradition, but gained wider popularity after several folk and blues artists recorded it, including: the Memphis Jug Band, Taj Mahal, Pete Seeger, Bob Dylan, Jim Kweskin, David Bromberg, Janis Joplin and The Grateful Dead.
